

St Matthias the apostle

Thursday 14 May 2020

After Judas Iscariot betrayed Jesus, the apostles brought their number back to twelve by choosing Matthias to replace him. He was chosen by lot from amongst the disciples.

The author of the Acts of the Apostles sees apostleship differently from St Paul and seems to prefer the understanding of the gospel of Luke. The number had to be restored so that they might 'sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel'. It was conditional that they had to have been with Jesus during his earthly ministry and had witnessed the resurrection. (The point of being chosen by lot, rather than by some democratic method, indicated the election or choosing by God, rather than by mortals.)

All Bible readings come from the New Revised Standard Version.

- The liturgy assumes the service is Eucharistic. The prayers of consecration have been included at the end rather than in situ because many following the service will be in isolation and unable to celebrate the sacrament.

The welcome

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit

All Amen.

The Lord be with you

All And also with you.

The Preparation

All Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said:

The first commandment is this:

‘Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart,
with all your soul, with all your mind,
and with all your strength.’

And the second is this: ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’

There is no other commandment greater than these.

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

Christ calls us to share the heavenly banquet of his love with all the saints in earth and heaven. Therefore, knowing our unworthiness and sin, let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, firmly resolved to keep God’s commandments and to live in love and peace with all.

All    Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against you and against our neighbour
in thought and word and deed, through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry
and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life to the glory of your name.
Amen.

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All    Amen.

The Gloria

This version of the Gloria is sung to the tune of 'Cwm Rhondda'. Click here for the tune.

All    Glory be to God in Heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring,
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing.
Lord we thank you, Lord we praise you,
Glory be to God our King:
Glory be to God our King.

Lamb of God, who on our shoulders,
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within.
Lord, have mercy, Christ have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin:
Now your glorious reign begin.

You O Son of God are Holy,
You we praise with one accord.
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord.
With the Father and the Spirit,
Ever worshipped and adored:
Ever worshipped and adored.

The Collect for St Matthias

Almighty God,
who in the place of the traitor Judas chose your faithful servant Matthias to be of the number of the Twelve:
preserve your Church from false apostles and, by the ministry of faithful pastors and teachers, keep us steadfast in your truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

First reading

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred and twenty persons) and said, 'Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus—for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry.’ (Now this man acquired a field with the reward of his wickedness; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out. This became known to all the residents of Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their language Hakeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) ‘For it is written in the book of Psalms, “Let his homestead become desolate, and let there be no one to live in it”; and “Let another take his position of overseer.” So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.’

So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, ‘Lord, you know everyone’s heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.’ And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles. Acts 1:15–26

All Thanks be to God.

Second reading

A reading from the St Paul’s First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Think of us in this way, as servants of Christ and stewards of God’s mysteries. Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. I do not even judge myself. I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me. Therefore do not pronounce judgement before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive commendation from God. I have applied all this to Apollos and myself for your benefit, brothers and sisters, so that you may learn through us the meaning of the saying, ‘Nothing beyond what is written,’ so that none of you will be puffed up in favour of one against another. For who sees anything different in you? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you received it, why do you boast as if it were not a gift? 1 Corinthians 4:1–7

Gospel reading

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

All    Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples, 'As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.' John 15:9-17

This is the Gospel of the Lord

All    Praise to you O Christ.

Sermon

Today we come together in worship to remember St Matthias who was the apostle that replaced Judas after Jesus' death and resurrection and after Judas' suicide. Although Matthias was not appointed an apostle until after Christ's death, he was clearly a friend of Jesus from before. Tradition suggests that his own Christian discipleship started quite early in Jesus' ministry, when he first followed Jesus then made a commitment and was baptised. He had faith in Jesus just as we do.

And, like us, Matthias faced life's difficulties and its hardships. Life often seems to throw everything it can at us. It gives us happiness, love, and joy but it also throws things at us that just makes us stop in our track such as heartbreak, death, depression, and so on. Pain has been present since the start of our lives, from small things like a child dropping their ice cream on the floor to being heartbroken by someone we love. It's sometimes quite hard to find the strength to carry on. I'm sure all of us feel like this at one time or another in our lives. If we're completely honest, we must acknowledge that life really isn't easy. It's often difficult to see past the pain and hurt. We question our Heavenly Father, shout at him, call him names that we wouldn't dare repeat in public. We feel pain, sadness and loss. But we wouldn't change any of it for it strengthens our relationship with God.

In the midst of the struggle and the happiness, we need to find those things that help us fight the game of life and strive forward. For many, it's having a successful job, a fancy car, travelling the world and even finding their partner for life. But we have so much more than that: we have God! That's our reason to fight. God. We have God as our eternal life partner, our never-ending love giver, our source of pure happiness.

It's sometimes difficult to remember that we have God as our friend, our life partner, our future. We need to remind ourselves of this truth and remind each other. We need to remind ourselves that we still have one another even through these times are hard and uncertain. We are still connected by and with our love for God. For we, like St Matthias, are a part of a big family. Our faith family. No matter what we may struggle with, we have one another and we also have God. We can rejoice in His love because He will be with us forever.

Lockdown means that many of us have additional time to reflect. We can use that time to think about our past and the things that hurt us, the people that broke us or the things that we may regret from our past. We then reflect on how God guided us through difficult times. How did he save us? What did we learn about our relationship with God at that time? As we reflect, can we see God helping us as a friend?

God is our friend and offers us a helping hand. If it's not clear if and when he offered his friendship, we can think about those people he's put into your life. Those who have loved us unconditionally, those who saved us, those who taught us a lesson and those who we have saved and those we love. How can we better ourselves? How can we be good faithful servants? Look to the Lord, ask for his love, sorrow and forgiveness and we will have a friend forever.

My dearest friends, my brothers and sisters, I end these thoughts with a poem. It means very much to me, personally. It was first given to me by my on-earth guardian angel. A poem that saved me. It's usually attributed to Mary Fishback Powers.

Footprints

One night I dreamed a dream.

As I was walking along the beach with my Lord.

Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.

For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,

One belonging to me and one to my Lord.

After the last scene of my life flashed before me,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,
especially at the very lowest and saddest times,
there was only one set of footprints.

This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.
'Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,
You'd walk with me all the way.
But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life,
there was only one set of footprints.
I don't understand why, when I needed You the most, You would leave me.'
He whispered, 'My precious child, I love you and will never leave you Never, ever, during your trials and testings.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you.'

Prayers of intercession

The Church of Christ

Lord, we pray for all who lead worship in your Church, for all those ordained as bishops, priests or deacons. We also pray for those who have not felt your call to be ministers in your Church but who yet have the desire to share their love for you outwardly during worship.

Draw from your disciples in the congregation a steady stream of those able to assist the priest at the altar, or to say the prayers. And may they find that, as they grow more involved in the outward celebration of your presence, they may grow also in your inward and spiritual grace.

Lord, help us like Matthias to serve you in the way you most desire from us:

All In your mercy, hear our prayer.

Creation, human society, the Sovereign and those in authority

Lord, who are the honoured guests in your tent? Who may commune with those who are lovingly embraced as the union of friends? Help us to be numbered among those who speak the truth from our hearts and do not slander with our tongues; among those who give their word to their neighbour and do not go back on their promises;

among those who recognise the outcast as the one whom they need, who forgive to seventy times seven; those who depend on the mercy of God and live the highest law that is love.

Lord, help us like Matthias to serve you in the way you most desire from us:

All In your mercy, hear our prayer.

The local community

Lord, when we think there is no one in our community able to carry out a certain task, give us the grace to look again. Give us the inspiration to look at our neighbours in a new light, and to see in them the possibilities that you see. And then if the task is in accordance with your will, we ask you to inspire them, the overlooked, to offer themselves up for service.

Lord, help us like Matthias to serve you in the way you most desire from us:

All In your mercy, hear our prayer.

Those who suffer

Lord, let us not fear the suffering that may come with giving ourselves to you and acknowledging that fact to the world. We bring before you all those martyrs in the past, who suffered for their faith. We bring before you most urgently the plight of Christians in countries where they are now being persecuted to the point of violence. We ask you both to fortify them and also to soften the hearts of their enemies against them.

Lord, help us like Matthias to serve you in the way you most desire from us:

All In your mercy, hear our prayer.

The communion of saints

Lord, we thank you for all your saints of every time and place. May we be filled with the Spirit that blessed them, so that, having shared their faith on earth, we may also know their peace in your kingdom.

Lord, help us like Matthias to serve you in the way you most desire from us:

All In your mercy, hear our prayer.

Merciful Father,

All accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

The peace

May the God of peace sanctify you: may he so strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before him at the coming of our Lord Jesus with his saints.

The peace of the Lord be always with you:

All And also with you.

The liturgy of the Communion Service appears below

The Dismissal

May Christ who makes saints of sinners, who has transformed those we remember today,
raise and strengthen you that you may transform the world;
and the blessing of God the Almighty:
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be with you now and remain with you always.

All Amen

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All In the name of Christ. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

Eucharistic Prayer (prayer E)

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy that we should always sing of your glory, holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord.
For you are the hope of the nations,
the builder of the city that is to come.
Your love made visible in Jesus Christ brings home the lost, restores the sinner
and gives dignity to the despised.
In his face your light shines out,
flooding lives with goodness and truth, gathering into one in your kingdom
a divided and broken humanity.
Therefore with all who can give voice in your creation
we glorify your name, for ever praising you and saying,

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured
may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross.
Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

Great is the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Lord of all life,
help us to work together for that day
when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with St Matthias and all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

All Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
grant us peace.

Draw near with faith.

Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ
which he gave for you,
and his blood which he shed for you.

Eat and drink

in remembrance that he died for you, and feed on him in your hearts
by faith with thanksgiving.

All We do not presume to come to this your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your manifold and great mercies.
We are not worthy
so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table.
But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy.
Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ
and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him,
and he in us.
Amen.

Communion is distributed.

Prayer after Communion

Almighty God,
who on the day of Pentecost sent your Holy Spirit to the apostles with the wind from heaven and in tongues of flame, filling them with joy and boldness to preach the gospel:
by the power of the same Spirit strengthen us to witness to your truth and to draw everyone to the fire of your love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All     Amen

All     Almighty God,
we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies
to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out
in the power of your Spirit to live and work
to your praise and glory.
Amen.
